The qualifying examination requires the student to produce a scholarly piece of work that is of publishable quality. After the paper is written, the student then presents and responds to questions posed by the Supervisory Committee.

First Name: ___________________ Last Name: ___________________ UNID: ___________

Title of QE paper: _______________________

Date of Oral Exam: ____________________

Circle One: Pass Conditional Pass Fail

Conditional Pass Comments: _______________________

Committee Members:

Name (Chair) ________________________ Signature ________________________

Name ________________________ Signature ________________________

Name ________________________ Signature ________________________

Name ________________________ Signature ________________________

Name ________________________ Signature ________________________